Come join us for storytime that features fun books and activities that foster reading readiness and listening skills for the entire family. Participants will complete an art activity at the end of every program. Ages 3-8.

For Adults

MAKMO: Cubelets

Monday, Apr 1, 3:30 – 4:30 pm

Cubelets are color-coded robot kits that can sense the world around them, process data, and perform various actions.

National Poetry Month Celebration

Monday, Apr 8, 3:30 – 4:30 pm

Create your own Black-out poetry that focuses on rearranging words to create a different meaning. By using your critical thinking skills, search for anchor words that creates a powerful story and enhancing it with the use of imagery and color to bring more meaning to the message. All materials are provided.

Book Club

Monday, Apr 22, 3:30 – 4:30 pm

Copies of the current title are available at Cedar Springs. New members are always welcome! This month we are reading, Once and for All written by Sarah Dessen.

Louna's years working at her mother's wedding planning business, have shaped her cynical views on romance, but the arrival of serial-dater Ambrose may start to change Louna's mind and give her a second chance at love.

Origami Kusudama

Monday, Apr 29, 3:30 – 4:30 pm

Japanese Kusudama balls are traditionally assembled from real flowers and herbs, and used as incense or pot pourri. A decorative paper version can be created by first folding origami flower petals and gluing them together into flowers, and then assembling 12 flowers into a decorative ball. Join us and learn how to create one. All materials are provided.

Book Club Discussion
